If you are flying in from elsewhere to depart from San Francisco with the group, do you need SAME DAY connections arranged before AND after the tour from and to your home area? The airlines are limited in what they can provide you as an add-on to the tour and they MUST be same-day connections in both directions. If you are coming from any significant distance, we recommend that you arrange your own flights to arrive a day early to rest up and break up the long trip. We can recommend several cost-effective hotels near the SFO airport for that purpose.
Do you need SAME DAY roundtrip connections between your home airport and San Francisco? YES / NO If so, what major airport is nearest you?
